Urgent Appeal Made to Join Ranks Now as Red Cross Roll Call Is Started

Arrange Window Display at Sierra Madre Garage Building

'Everybody a Member Everywhere' Is the Slogan Adopted

The local chapter of the Red Cross has made an interesting window display at the Sierra Madre Garage. Through the cooperation of "Milt" (the man long on Fords and physique, but never "short" when it comes to boosting) headquarters have been made at his place of business. Cards telling of the activities of the local relief work are displayed; on one card is shown the fact that over 1300 quarts of milk have been furnished since the first of the year; another tells the number of first-aid lessons furnished, this number being over 300. The swimming classes held in the summer were attended by over 200 pupils.

The program for the coming year as regards Sierra Madre will cover a swimming school of ten days duration instead of six, first aid classes for young and old; life saving classes, and a disaster committee, which will work in conjunction with the forest reserve forces. Help as in the past will be furnished soldiers and their dependents.

Work under the auspices of the national organization will be supported by the local chapter, and the campaign for memberships continued until the quota of 750 is obtained. Citizens are requested to bring their dollars to headquarters, thereby making the work a little easier for the members who are handling the membership campaign.

The following telegram was received yesterday, addressed to W. R. Humphries, roll call chairman: "With Armistice Day and Thanksgiving approaching we all have reason to be thankful that no great disaster has come to our country this year. The Roll Call has the right of way. The distraction of a great disaster appeal just before Roll Call has been absent. Our attention therefore can be centered on our great opportunity for increasing the membership of the American Red Cross so that its vital services may be adequately maintained.

"I urge that you take full advantage of this opportunity in your Roll Call plans. Let us march a step nearer to the goal, 'Everybody a Member Everywhere.' Cordially yours, John Barton Paynes, chairman."

The teachers and employees of the school here have pledged their support to the local chapter 100 per cent and were this week presented with a "100 per cent" flag. Fire Chief Richards reports that his organization to a man have renewed their memberships, making another record, and living up to their work of a year ago.

Chairman Humphries makes his appeal for quick action, and requests that everyone join during the next seven days. Checks should be made out to Sierra Madre chapter, Red Cross.

The following women will be in charge of tables to receive membership dues: Mmes. J. O. Smith, Clarence Bowen, R. M. Finlayson, Chas. T. Hatcher, Hortense Hill, H. H. Holland, Herbert Lasater, M. D. Welscher, W. C. Gruitt, Miss Clara Sykes and Miss Ethel Dickinson. Tables will be placed in the Hotel Patio, in the bank and in the postoffice. On Saturday, the Girl Reserves will be on duty.

So. Cal. Edison Co. Install Big Electric Sign on Office Here

The local office of the Southern California Edison Company has just installed a large electric sign on the front of the building on North Baldwin. This new feature adds greatly to the convenience of new-comers to the city in locating the electric office, and it also brightens up that section of the city at night.

The sign contains twelve 50-watt lights which gives a total lighting of 600 watts. R. C. Copenhaver, local manager, supervised the erection of the sign early this week.

Famous Vocalists To Appear on Program at Monrovia

The second meeting of the San Gabriel Valley Opera Reading Club will be held Saturday, November 9, at 10:30 a. m., in the Colonial Theatre at Monrovia.

The well known opera "Carmen" will be presented, Frederick Vance Evans, lecturer-director, and the following splendid artists assisting: Lillia Snelling, Farquhar, mezzo, as "Carmen"; Ivan Edwards, tenor, "Don Jose"; Jessie MacDonald Patterson, soprano, "Micaela"; Melville Avery, baritone, "Escamilla." Mattie B. Peck, accompanist.

Local members of the club are very enthusiastic regarding the series, and they are urging music lovers of this city to align themselves with the club. Information as to club membership, costs, etc., may be secured from Mrs. Donald B. Ashmore, committee member for Sierra Madre.

Community Players Will Open Season Friday, Nov. 11th

Beginning the second season of activity here, the Sierra Madre Community Players will hold a membership meeting Friday, November 15, in the old Congregational Church building. The meeting will be called at 8 p. m. A feature of the evening will be two one-act plays, one presented by the Monrovia Community Players and the other by the local players. It is planned this year to invite players from neighboring cities to put on their productions here every once in a while, and Monrovia very readily accepted the first invitation.

Anyone who has an interest in dramatics and might consider becoming a member of the Community Players is welcome to attend the meeting Friday of next week. There will be no charge and it is hoped that the turn-out will be large to greet the local players as well as those from Monrovia.

Bethany Friends To Give Farewell For Miss Evans

Miss Florence Evans, who sails on the Van Buren from San Pedro Monday noon for China, to enter upon her missionary work, will be the guest of honor at a gathering to be held tonight at Bethany Temple. All her friends are cordially invited.

Mr. Herbert Tay of San Dimas Boys' School will show the beautiful pictures he took in Egypt and Syria, colored by Mrs. Tay, who is an artist. Samuel Kirk and C. L. Custer will sing. An informal social time will follow the more formal part of the evening. The pictures will be shown at 7:45 o'clock.

Sunday School To Give Party for Pupils and Parents

The officers and teachers of the Sunday School of the First Congregational Church will give a party for members and parents this evening (Friday) at 7:30 o'clock in the social hall.

A good program has been arranged and Supt. Convers Twycross urges that pupils of the Sunday School and their parents turn out in large force.

Sierra Madre Merchants Offer Many Splendid Bargains in 'Ads' This Week

Thrifty and foresighted housewives this week will not fail to take advantage of the remarkably attractive prices on merchandise featured by local merchants in this issue of the News. Next Monday is a holiday, so it is doubly important that supplies for two or three days be laid in at this time.

A number of merchants have expressed their great satisfaction with results obtained by advertising their prices in the paper and this plan will be continued if the public will manifest their interest by taking advantage of the special way they have been doing the past few weeks.

Here is a brief sketch of the many values offered this week to

'PRICE' ADVERTISING APPEALS TO LOCAL THRIFTY RESIDENTS

"The best issue the News ever put out," is the way one reader of the Sierra Madre News expressed his sentiments concerning the last issue. When pressed for the reason for his statement he said: "It was chuck full of advertisements with itemized prices. That feature not only brightened up the 'ads,' making them more interesting from the reader's standpoint, but enabled me to compare local and city prices, without going to the stores and asking the prices from the local dealers."

"And I was surprised to discover that the local merchants in every instance approximated down-town prices—quality considered."

The News is informed by local business men that a noticeable "pick-up" in business was noticed over the past week end.

Kiwanians Hear Talk On School

Sierra Madre Owes Children Better Building, Says Meredith

Charles B. Klunk was elected as the new president of the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club at a brief meeting of the board of directors just prior to the regular noonday session last Tuesday. Other officers chosen for the coming year were: W. J. Lawless, vice president; Ray A. Grant, district trustee; and Clay C. Reavis, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Klunk at present is serving as vice president of the club; Ray Grant is the present president and Clay Reavis is secretary and treasurer. The new officers will not be installed until after the first of January, 1930, but it was essential that they be chosen now in order that they might attend the conferences at the state convention of Kiwanis being held at Long Beach this week end. W. J. Lawless was elected delegate to this convention with voting power.

President Grant announced that a joint meeting with the Monrovia Kiwanis Club will be held here next week, when 25 members from Monrovia are expected to be in attendance here. The speaker will be R. A. Goodell of the Southern California Automobile Club, who will talk upon "The Degree of Master Motorists of the King's Highway." The Monrovia men will bring some entertaining numbers with them, it is expected.

The feature of last Tuesday's meeting was an address by G. H. Meredith, assistant superintendent of the Pasadena Public Schools, who gave an enlightening summary of the recent survey of the Sierra Madre school plant by Pasadena educational authorities made at the request of the local Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Meredith declared that the principal and teachers of the Sierra Madre schools are to be commended for the splendid work they are doing with the present equipment and under such unfavorable conditions as to building facilities. He also praised the Kiwanis Club for making the

Sierra Madre Closes Shop On Monday

Public Should Show Appreciation of Spirit Shown Here

Post Office Windows to Close at Noon, Monday, Says Mrs. Wright

Sierra Madre will close practically a hundred per cent next Monday in proper observance of the eleventh anniversary of the signing of the Armistice that brought to a close the bloodiest combat the world has ever known.

In spite of the fact that some of the neighboring cities are so blinded with the mercenary spirit that they ignore the expressed wishes of the powerful American Legion that this day should be generally observed, Sierra Madre has decided in a most commendable manner to lead the way and celebrate this memorable occasion by as complete a cessation of business as is possible.

This newspaper, if the editorial injection will be pardoned, sincerely trusts that the buying public will show their appreciation of the spirit of local merchants by doing their necessary shopping here at home either before or after the double holiday period. They may show their loyalty that in keeping with the spirit of patriotism or loyalty to the ideals of the country demonstrated by the merchants. These men as a rule operate on a small basis and can ill afford to lose even a single day's business.

Practically every local store has signified its intention to close all day Monday. Service stations will remain open a short time in the early morning to dispense gas to motorists who are going on trips. The drug stores both will close from 12 noon to 4 p. m. The schools, both the public and parochial, will dismiss classes entirely for that day.

The following statement was issued by Mrs. Wright, postmistress, in regard to mail service for the day: "The post office will be open for business as usual Monday morning, Armistice Day, but the windows will close at noon. The usual morning deliveries by carriers will be made and all outgoing mail will be dispatched the same as every business day."

"There will be no afternoon delivery by carriers and there will be no window service after 12 o'clock. Mail deposited in the post office up to 5 o'clock in the afternoon will be sent out that night and evening mail will be placed in the boxes as usual."

Turkey Dinner to Be Big Feature at St. Rita's Bazaar

The bazaar at St. Rita's will open Thursday, November 21, at 2 p. m. and at 5:30 p. m. a turkey dinner will be served by the ladies of the parish. The service will be continuous until 8 p. m., and the price just 15c.

The evening will be made interesting from an entertainment point of view, a program with talented artists appearing now being arranged.

The articles to be given away are very attractive, with a General Electric ice box as first choice, Echophone radio set, portable Victrola, electric clock (portable by W. J. Ropp).

The ladies are interested and have worked very faithfully to make this bazaar a big success. The booths will be especially attractive with a range of novelties and commodities for home use, and suitable for Christmas giving.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaacs Find Eastern Fall Is Very Beautiful

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Isaacs, who returned from their eastern trip last week report a most delightful vacation and visit with relatives and friends.

The Eastern woods are brilliant with foliage at this season of the year, and the reflection of wooded hills with their patches of color in the lakes was most delightful, Mrs. Isaacs states.

They are happy to be at home again and feel that Sierra Madre is still a chosen spot of beauty.

VALUE OF NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING SHOWN THRU SALES REPORT

Published figures of increased sales for gasoline in California indicate the value of newspaper advertising in the marketing of gasoline. For instance Richfield, a consistent newspaper advertiser, leads the list of the bigger companies with a 40% increase; Shell, who has been using newspaper space shows an increase of 20 per cent; Standard Oil, not so consistent in newspaper advertising, 5 per cent; Union, with little or no advertising, 3.6 never used the per cent. Associated, who advertises over radio, shows a loss of 7 per cent. Texaco, which has done little or no newspaper advertising, shows a loss of 25 per cent. The moral in this story is so obvious as to require no comment.

Merchants To Observe Armistice

Association Votes to Close All Day Monday, Nov. 11

A recommendation that all places of business in Sierra Madre, in so far as possible, should close on Armistice Day, November 11, was the principal action taken by the Retail Merchants Association at a special meeting held at the Park Club House Monday evening. The meeting was called by President Ray Grant at this time due to the fact that the regular meeting time would have fallen on next Monday, which is a holiday.

While the sentiment in favor of closing was not unanimous, still there was a sufficiently large majority to carry the motion when it was put. The two drug stores will observe regular holiday hours and the service stations will dispense gas for only a short time in the early forenoon. It is expected that the food stores and other places of business will be closed all day, so shoppers will do well to anticipate this fact and lay in their supplies on Saturday of this week.

The "eats" committee for Monday consisted of Bob Babbitt and Tom Solury. Home-made apple pie was enthusiastically received as the crowning course in the feast. There were sixteen members present, as follows: J. Milton Steinberger, Tommy Miller, Albert Wheeling, W. E. Craig, Fred Griebonov, Joe Belohlavek, Jr., Chas. B. Klunk, Waverly E. Pratt, F. H. Hartman, Henry Greger, Tom Tyler, Robert Davies, Ray Grant, Bob Babbitt, Tom Solury and Joseph L. Asbury.

At the next meeting, to be held the second Monday evening in December, the matter of affiliating with the state and national retail merchant credit associations will be acted upon.

Mrs. Randolph Wood attended a meeting of the board of directors of the San Gabriel Valley Opera Reading Club at Monrovia last Friday morning. The meeting was held in the Aztec Hotel and was largely attended. Mrs. Wood recommends the lecture recital to be held in Monrovia for the club Saturday morning, to all music lovers in this city.

Local Jail Meets With the Enthusiastic Approval of Visitors from Crown City

Sierra Madre's jail came in for a good share of praise this week from the committee from Pasadena that is investigating jail conditions in that and nearby cities. The committee made a trip to Sierra Madre and in the report to the grand jury in which the Pasadena jail was characterized as a "disgrace to the city," the following reference to the bastille in this city was made: "We then proceeded to Sierra Madre, where we found conditions fine in every way. The officials of Sierra Madre should be congratulated and commended for the bright, cheerful and sanitary conditions found in their jail."

However, G. G. McMillan, chief of police, says that regardless of the manifest advantages of the local lock-up over the accommodations furnished Pasadena prisoners, there has been no rush for admittance. In fact there has been no one in the local place of detention since the arrest and incarceration of a bootlegger some time ago.

And further than that, "Mac" says he craves no increase in residents of that type in the city.

Well Known Architects Are Engaged to Draw the Plans for New Building

Miss Mildred Zeller Married Monday at Pretty Home Affair

The marriage of Miss Mildred Zeller and Mr. Charles E. Spott took place Monday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Clara D. Zeller, 93 West Mira Monte Ave. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wm. Duncan Ogg in the presence of a small company of friends and relatives. Preceding the ceremony Mr. Jack Buchanan sang "Until," with Mrs. George B. Morgridge at the piano.

The bride is well known in Sierra Madre, having resided here since her school days. She was for six years bookkeeper in the office of the Sierra Madre News and is now a stenographer in the offices of the Lincoln Mortgage Co. of Los Angeles. She is a member of the local Eastern Star Chapter. The groom is the son of Mrs. Charles Canoon of Claremont. He is a salesman for the General Electric refrigerator department in Los Angeles.

After the ceremony duly refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Spott will make their home in Los Angeles, residing for the present at 323 1/2 South Fremont.

Luther Gilson, Aged Resident, Passes Monday

Luther Gilson, a resident of Sierra Madre for the past fifteen years, died Monday, November 4, at 5 p. m., at his home, 48 West Mira Monte after a short illness. Mr. Gilson had attained the ripe old age of 89 years, two months and 12 days. He was born in Hastings, Oswego County, New York, and later moved to Wisconsin where, for 37 years he was connected with the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway. For sixty-nine years he was a member of Dodge County chapter, Masonic Lodge, Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, and also Wisconsin Commandery No. 1, Knight's Templar, Milwaukee.

Mr. Gilson was married twice, first to Mary A. Taylor, to which union were born three children. Mrs. H. J. Stimson of Chicago, a daughter, is the soul survivor heir, and has been living with her father the past year. Lucy Marvin was the second wife.

Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard of the Congregational Church conducted services at the Ray A. Grant Funeral Chapel, and Masonic services followed.

Cremation took place at Pasadena and interment will be at Beaver Dam, Wisconsin.

Pomegranate Bears Profuse Crop, For The Copenhavers

R. C. Copenhaver has on display in the Sierra Madre News window this week a branch from a pomegranate tree growing in his yard at 282 Mariposa street, with eleven very large pomegranates. The brilliant red, together with the green leaves makes it an object of beauty. The stalk is so heavy that one finds it rather difficult to hold it in one hand.

"Cope" states the whole tree is loaded with fruit and from the time the tree blooms until it fruits it is equally lovely.

Building Permits In Sierra Madre Continue to Gain

A gain of $9040 in building permits issued in October of this year over the same month last year shows a healthy condition of building activity in Sierra Madre for that period, according to Earl J. Lynde, building inspector. A total of $16,490 for the month just past against $7450 for the same month last year is an interesting figure.

Permits issued this year to date total $148,605 and for the same period last year, $126,258, an increase of $22,347 over last year, with two active building months ahead.

Fire Flames

By One of the Boys

Well, we haven't had a fire this week, the third one seems detained; but it has the boys well trained. Around the engine house each night there's sure to be some chatter; the Firemen gather there with might to find out what's the matter. Chief Richards has an awful time, explaining rules and regulations. He thinks it is close to crime, if we lose on speculation. He says we should be home in bed; this suggestion, we think, is fine, for when we go, it's in our head, "it must be after nine."

Frank Lovell's not so bouyant now, his head no longer swims; his wife has dinged his bouyant brow for singing songs—not hymns. Seems they went out to a party, Frank had promised to be good, so he started to sing "he would." He was asked to sing a solo and his tenor voice rang out songs from "Genevieve" to "Bolo," but this type did not hang out. As his voice got weak and weaker then the crowd began to sway and his wife got meek and meeker 'cause she knew just what he'd play. Well, temptation overcame him, giving in to cruel fate as his wife's bridge prize o'ercame him, he was singing "Just Too Late."

The boss here in the press room asked what we were going to write about and we said "About three stanzas" and unless inspiration gets the better of consternation it looks as tho the answer was correct. There are a lot of good things to tell on brother firemen, but ever since we "smothered the chief we have had to be careful.

However, a group of the boys were stalling around waiting for a fire call, when Judge Lasater joined the quipish quadrangle and the subject drifted from fires to fines. One of the boys, seated in the police dept. car complained of the poor cushions in the back seat, so the judge fined him to the land of the Pyramids (if you know what I mean).

Among other things discussed at this "meeting before hand" was the condition of some of our public buildings as to fire hazard. We found that one very prominent meeting place has the main entrance door swinging in and not out and is usually kept closed. In another, the aisles are sometimes closed with chairs. Can you imagine the catastrophe in the event of someone calling "fire!" in these places; or can you imagine the impertinence of our chief asking people to remedy such hazards?

Here we are in November and it won't be long until Christmas. Well, the stock-market affray seems to have lost the front page and no real interesting murders have been committed (altho Senator Johnson didn't get to the party, thru an "inadvertance"), we had better begin to figure on a Merry Christmas and the "Big Parade." Of vital interest to the fire department is the success of the big Christmas dance to be given soon, as this is the source of the fiance for the Community Christmas Tree and Treat. This is one time the boys all agree to sell tickets and we all feel that everyone is willing to cooperate in this small effort to instill the Christmas spirit in our community. This is a community affair and the Fire Department craves no laurels. Just willing to do our bit. Get your tickets early and avoid the "brush."

This is regular meeting night. Soon be time, the room is chilly and the Fire's Out!

Contractors Must Take Out License Under New Law

Harry E. Insley, investigator for the department of professional and vocational standards, was in the city last week, and called the attention of the News to the new law requiring licenses for "any person, firm, copartnership, corporation, association, or other organization, who, for compensation other than wages, undertakes with another any construction, alteration or repairs, where the amount involved is more than $200." An application fee of $5 is required and application blanks may be secured from James F. Collins, Director, Dept. of Prof. and Vocational Standards, Sacramento, Calif.

The law is designed to eliminate as far as possible disregard of the building code of the state, safety law or labor laws. It operates to eliminate abandonment of any contract without legal excuse. Penalties for operating without a license are not to exceed $500 fine or six months imprisonment. The law is now operative.

Mr. Insley is the famous "Cap." Insley of the American Legion, is a graduate of DePauw, class of '83, and is known to his associates in the Legion as "The College Kid." He was a friend and confidant of Theodore Roosevelt, knew General Grant, and many other famous men, and has had an interesting and colorful career. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

P.T.A. DINNER GREAT SUCCESS

Patronized by more than 300 persons, the P.T.A. annual Halloween dinner and carnival, held at the school building October 31, was a colorful and successful affair.

The carnival started with a parade thru the principal downtown streets, with more than 200 children in clever costumes, led by Lee Shippey and chaperoned by several of the mothers.

Ghosts, clowns, witches, Red-Riding Hood, Mother Goose, goblins, character impersonations, Krazy Kats, and nearly every conceivable costume were represented.

A chicken-pie dinner followed, served in the school cafeteria, attractive with flower decorations.

A snappy program followed, featuring the Arcadia Boys' Harmonica Band, from the South Santa Anita and Temple school, led by Margaret Tindell, principal; a moving picture presented by Rudolph Hartman and his son, Rudolph, Jr., "a wild man" from Borneo, fun house, games and fish pond.

A special feature of the evening's entertainment was the program of psychic mirth and mystery presented by Dr. Jas. J. psychologist, of Pasadena. Colored lights in the patio added to the festive air of the occasion.

Mrs. Wm. Butts, president of the P.T.A., and her executive board wish to take this opportunity to thank the mothers, friends, teachers and all those who donated cooked foods, money or in any way assisted in making the celebration the success that it was. The mothers who made the costumes deserve special commendation.

The following people and others whose names could not be secured, rendered able assistance: Mrs. Wm. Lees, Mrs. Reoss, Mrs. Holland, made the chicken pies; Mr. Richter, of the Home Bakery, donated 10 dozen rolls; Rudolph Hartman and Rudolph, Jr., Mrs. Embree, Mrs. Stinman, Mrs. Geo. REMOVING THE STAIN

IF there is a particle of pride left in the hearts of Sierra Madre citizens, they will rise up in vigorous protest at the charge contained in the school survey to the effect that this city ranks fourth among twelve similar cities in Los Angeles county in the matter of ABILITY to provide educational facilities for her children, but eighth to tenth in PERFORMANCE of this duty!

This protest will take the shape of immediate concrete action in "talking up" the urgent need of a school bond issue during the short time that the School Board is preparing this important measure for presentation to the voters. There are many well-meaning persons who have been so frightened by propaganda about increased taxes that they shy clear of anything that sounds like a bond issue, even without listening to any arguments in its favor. Such people can be reached only thru the intervention of close personal friends who "have seen the light" and have access to their confidence.

The School Board members have all declared themselves in favor of a new school and have engaged architects to prepare plans for the building; the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce have endorsed the movement, and the Kiwanis Club has made this a primary objective toward which they are working, having already held a meeting this week with the principal speech dealing with the subject of a new school for this city.

Other organizations should follow this lead and disseminate information as to the need and the feasibility of the most worthwhile project that Sierra Madre has taken up in a long time.

"ONE GOOD TURN—"

WE are all as familiar with the old saying "One good turn deserves another" as we are with the fundamental principle of Boy Scout work which calls for the doing of a "good turn daily."

Now that we have two newly organized troops of Boy Scouts here in Sierra Madre, there is a chance to connect up the two thoughts to the mutual advantage of the boys and the citizens who helped so loyally in financing the movement to make the troops possible.

It has been called to our attention that—not only at Hallowe'en time—some boys in this city have been in the habit of tearing down or uprooting real estate signs and other notices, throwing them in the street or mutilating them beyond repair.

We feel sure that the type of boys developed in Scout work would not encourage such practices, but this would be a splendid objective for them to have in mind. That is, pass the word along among other boys that depredations of that sort are frowned upon by real manly boys. Certainly that would create a splendid feeling among the citizens who "dug down" to help raise the $800 quota for Scout work here and at the same time it would be an opportunity to do a "good turn" as called for in their creed.

BEGINNING TO SEE THE LIGHT

AND now Pomona begins to see the light. The old problem of what to do with the promiscuous distribution of handbills, including the Shopping News, is again in the forefront of public attention in Pomona.

Some time ago Claremont took action against the nuisance, and the distribution of the Shopping News and other advertising circulars within the local city limits was materially curtailed. True, the Pomona Shopping News is still being distributed here, but only those who have signed for it may receive it under the Claremont ordinance, and its circulation has fallen to a negligible figure.

The Shopping News is published through the cooperation of a group of Pomona merchants and now the Pomona residents are complaining, if we are to judge from the following quotation in a recent issue of the Pomona Progress-Bulletin:

"Chief of Police W. S. Kirby will ask for an amendment of the city ordinance governing the distribution of handbills, making it impossible to distribute in any manner unless he receives better cooperation from merchants using this method of advertising."

"Police have on file 200 and more complaints, received and recorded during the month, and Chief Kirby feels that there is sufficient ground to take the matter before the city council for a showdown."

Why Pomona merchants persist in flaunting this type of nuisance in the faces of their prospective patrons in Pomona and elsewhere is an enigma. A handbill unwanted fails to encourage the goodwill of a prospective customer.—Claremont Courier.

THOSE WHO PLAY MUST PAY

THE recent decline in the stock market may be, as has been pointed out, a healthy indication for the business world. This fact does not, however, detract from the injury suffered by the pocketbook of the small investor who has been encouraged to "get in on the market killing" and has followed that advice. A considerable injury has been done that type of individual and that in itself is bound to injure the business world to some extent.

Through the whole "up-and-down" performance of the stock market there has stood out one glaring fact—stocks have been boosted too high. That in itself, is an unhealthy condition. A share of stock is worth its legitimate earning power as such, and worth only that much; when it is boosted above that earning power there has been put into operation a program which will eventually work to injure the man who is financially least in a position to stand up under such operations.

There can be no question as to the reason for the boosting of the stock on the "market." That reason was clearly thrown open to the public gaze when the stocks went tumbling down to a new low level with the resultant loss of millions to those who could least afford such a loss. The man with plenty can smilingly stand by until the storm has blown over, pick up additional pieces of wreckage at small cost during the downward crash and comfortably collect the "velvet" when the "powers that be on the street" see fit to force quotations up again.—Enumclaw (Wash.) Herald.

INTELLIGENCE IN CRIME REFORM

THE interest being taken in our growing criminality by scientists, statesmen, industrialists and leaders in all fields of endeavor is a hopeful sign. In the past, most crime investigations have been left to professional reformers, many of them fanatical. As a result a vast number of theories have appeared and disappeared with the criminal still flourishing.

With our "crime future" in the hands of men proven practical and successful there is some hope for relief. There is small place for sentiment in crime suppression.

It is notable that a great army of experts has commented unfavorably on our super-abundance of laws destined to curb crime. It seems to be a proven fact that more laws make more crime.

The first move in any genuine crime reform must be to clear the decks of the red tape and legal technicalities that now make a trial a duel of legal phrases rather than a discussion of fact. The criminal can not be deterred by prohibitory legislation alone. It must become apparent that crime is unprofitable and that offenders will be quickly punished.

We have had our fill of anti-this-and-that laws. The United States needs a simple, effective legal code that will punish and prevent crime without working a hardship on the good citizen.

"Women," says Mr. Alfred E. Smith, and for the life of us we can't understand why his magazine stuff is, in our opinion, so much less interesting than Mr. Coolidge's, "are just as much interested in Government as men are, and just as intelligent." Just about, which, if you ask us, is praise so faint as to be inaudible.—New York World.

Fawns Transported Through Air Lanes

Transporting young members of the deer family by airplane is the latest move in game conservation in the southwest. Eight fawns belonging to the Kaibab National Forest on the north rim of the Grand Canyon were transported via the air route to the south rim instead of making the trip by trucks as in previous seasons.

The trip by plane required only 3 hours, whereas 24 to 30 hours were required by truck. The fawns showed no ill effects from their ride, and eventually are expected to increase the deer herds around the south rim of the great canyon.

The charge that terrorism is rampant in Cuba is denied by Cuban editors, claiming that the alleged ferment in Machado about nothing.—Atlanta Constitution.

Let's Not Forget Them On Armistice Day

Eleven years ago they paraded home amidst wild cheers and unbounded enthusiasm—heroes, every one of them! How glad we were to have them back again. Let's remember them again today. They are the same heroes. They would offer to give the utmost for us again. They made peace possible and our great prosperity. Let's not forget.

Charity Ends At Home!

THE LAST PERSON from whom you want something for nothing is your neighbor. Yet you know he would be the first and largest donor were you in need. Ask yourself why!

The reason is as simple as it is strong. Your neighbor knows he could, if occasion arose, expect the same from you. And the very fact that neither of you does ask the other for charity cements your bond of mutual helpfulness.

The selfsame principle applies with greater force on the larger scale of your relations with the merchants and professional men of this town. They'd give you the "shirt off their back" if you needed it—and you, if you are a wide awake citizen, would do the same for them.

Of course you will never ask it of them and they'll never ask it of you. But the feeling exists none the less. It expresses itself in concrete terms every time you purchase anything. Your merchant gets his pleasure from the fact that his customers are his neighbors, whom he knows would not, simply could not, be offering him charity. And you have the satisfaction of getting a good, square deal and a good, round dollar's worth—every time.

Perhaps charity should begin at home, but it does not. It ends there. And in its place you get a brand of mutual understanding and helpfulness that's got all the charity in the world licked a mile.

Play Days Prove Popular With the Nation's Maidens

Women's athletics today are at the crossroads, was the fact brot out at the meeting of the Girls' Athletic Association of Woodrow Wilson Junior High, Monday of this week. Which way they go will mean much in the future of American sport and for the womanhood of the country. Should they turn in the wrong direction, even the present sane policy of the majority of the women's colleges thruout the country will be endangered; who knows whether a public mania for championship contests and winning teams in the colleges could be long withstood?

Already pressure is being exerted on all sides to force women into the competitive whirlpool.

The Play Day idea is new, original and beneficial. It can be utilized in elementary schools, in high schools, finishing colleges, and universities, and in fact, in all bodies of girls and women in need of physical education and sport. Despite the handicap of an unfortunate name, which suggests folk dancing or community singing, these play days, started in California, have spread the country over. Briefly the idea is this:

Fifty girls, let us say, from 10 different institutions meet for a day of athletics. They are formed into 10 teams of five girls each; but these teams do not represent the various schools or business houses participating—they are mixed teams, each girl on each team being chosen from a different group. Each team plays against the others in any number of sports—volley ball, tennis, field hockey, etc. Each girl plays instead of watching a few plays, yet there is enough competition to furnish plenty of rivalry and keep up interest, although the allegiance of the player is transferred from her school or institution to the team.

Thus while retaining the advantages of outdoor exercise, play days remove many of the disadvantages of the former system, under which a girl who failed to show a marked aptitude for a sport never made the team and thus often missed a chance to learn the game.

Play days can be adapted to the use of small children or to that of the college undergraduate or factory employe, merely by varying the sports to be played. At play days there is no star team playing with another star team; there are large groups of girls competing together in as many different sports as time and the facilities at hand will permit. Many girls who would not try for varsity teams for lack of ability do not hesitate to play beside others as awkward and unskilled as themselves; and few there are who do not care for one sport or another during the course of the day. Here the play is the thing, not the winning for one's college or club. There are no gate receipts, no grandstands and spectators; there is nothing sensational for the newspaper reporter. Play Days can be, and have been, the means of breaking up petty jealousies between schools and institutions, of making those real friendships of sport so often talked about and so seldom made, of turning athletics into the thing it should be—a means to an end instead of the end itself.

Shrunken black heads, skeletons of fish, animals, birds, mummies, and old coins were among the things Dr. Bull of the museum showed to the members of the Scholarship Society of Wilson High School who visited the museum at Exposition Park in Los Angeles recently. About three hours were spent in the museum, after which the society members went to the picnic grounds for their dinner. Following the dinner were toasts, songs and cheers. The members of the Scholarship Society voted the excursion a success. It was due to the help of Miss Pauline Handy, Mrs. Anna Mary Magnuson, Dorothea Cox and Ethel Johnston that the young people who went on the excursion had such a good time.

"Talkies" Picture Show is Success On Moving Train

Culminating years of research and experimenting, a talking motion picture was successfully shown for the first time in history aboard a moving train recently. Using Western Electric equipment, the experiment was performed thru the cooperation of Electrical Research Products Incorporated, the Paramount-Famous-Lasky Corporation and the Union Pacific System. All the passengers aboard the Limited from Los Angeles to Chicago were invited to adjourn to the "theater car," which has been specially provided for the experiment. The showing came shortly after 8 o'clock when officials conducting the experiment flashed the current issue of a Paramount Sound Newsreel on the screen, which was followed immediately by "The Virginian," soon to be released by Paramount. As the surprised passengers took their seats in the theater car little did they realize that they were to witness an experiment that would mark one of the most important steps in the progress of sound projection and screening of motion pictures.

County Health Dept. Starts War Against 'Bootleg' Minceat

In a drive to clear the market of the present flood of imitation and adulterated minceat, bakers and pie manufacturers convened at the Hall of Justice at the request of Dr. J. L. Pomeroy, county health officer, for discussion and interpretation of the standards set by county authorities for the composition of minceat. The definition of minceat recently adopted by the county health department pending action of the United States department of agriculture requires the substance to contain "at least 10 per cent of meat," and prohibits the addition of more than 51 per cent of any other one substance unless it is labeled by the name of the material added," according to J. R. Kirkpatrick, chief food inspector of the county health department.

The campaign against 'bootleg' minceat pies is aimed at many small scale manufacturers responsible for the influx of imitation and substandard pies during the Halloween, Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons. Many of these manufacturers are in the practice of adulterating minceat with apples and raisins to the extent that the public is defrauded by the name under which it is sold, according to Mr. Kirkpatrick.

Two Million Dollars Worth of Airplanes Will Be on Exhibit

Representing approximately every important airplane manufacturer in America and several in Europe, it was announced, 52 planes have been contracted for exhibition for the forthcoming Western Aircraft Show to be held here from November 9 to 17 under the auspices of the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce of America.

A crew of workers have been rushing operations on the exposition building at Wilshire and Fairfax, which is expected to be completed and ready for the displays several days before the show opens.

"This will be a show for the public and every opportunity will be offered for the people to examine the displays at close range and to have them explained by aeronautical experts," Cliff Henderson, managing director, stated.

THE ROYAL WIPE
Lord Ebbisham tells that "It is said that Mussolini was present at some function with the King of Italy, and some time along the king dropt his handkerchief. Mussolini stooped quickly and returned it, for which the king expressed his thanks profusely, almost pointedly.

"Some one later asked him why he was so glad to get his handkerchief back. 'I was delighted. You see, it is the only thing left that I am allowed to put my nose into.'"—Christian Advocate.

Canyon Park Notes

Glenn C. Wallace left the canyon on Tuesday after a residence of seven months.

Mrs. Laura M. Cline and Mrs. Agnes Leighton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leon S. Griswold Saturday night at the Halloween dinner dance, Lake Norconian Club.

Mrs. Weaver of "Days Off" was a dinner guest of Mrs. Frances H. Burton on Tuesday evening at "Linger Long" on Woodland Drive. Other guests for bridge in the evening were Mrs. A. L. Phelps and Mrs. D. A. Hauk.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Corum returned home Thursday from Moro Bay, Santa Cruz, San Jose and Oakland, where they spent eleven days. Mrs. Ida Freeland, Mr. Corum's sister, returned with them from San Jose for a six week's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Petzel, 461 Sturtevant Drive, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Elizabeth Petzel, to Alfred James Dewey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Dewey of Marlborough Terrace. The date for the wedding has been set for Sunday afternoon at the Congregational Church. A number of affairs complimenting Miss Petzel are being given this week.

Mrs. A. N. Iffrig was the recipient of many lovely gifts when her birthday was celebrated with a surprise party given at the Canyon Store last Friday night. Decorations in the Halloween motif and the dinner were bro't from Los Angeles. Those present were Mrs. J. Spencer, Hal and Ace Spencer of San Gabriel, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lincoln and daughter June, and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Iffrig of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Maycock of Pasadena and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Davis of Long Beach entertained at dinner Monday on the bridge spanning the Little Santa Anita stream channel at the Davis home, "Bridge Inn." The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Mather of Detroit, Mr. Hess and daughter of Salt Lake City, Mrs. Tickner of Plymouth, Michigan, Mrs. Dick and daughter of Pasadena and Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Maycock of Long Beach and Pasadena.

A surprise linen shower was given on Monday night by Mrs. L. S. High at her home, 168 Santa Anita Court, complimenting Miss Dorothy Petzel. Colors of white and yellow were used in decorations, with masses of goldenrod. Much merriment was afforded the guests when Miss Petzel was required to haul into the room a child's express wagon laden with gifts. Refreshments were served late in the evening to the guests, among whom were Mrs. Lee Stork of Altadena, Mmes. W. B. Corum, James C. Heasley, Laura M. Cline, Bruce Bailey, W. D. Richards, S. Petzel, Alfred J. Dewey, M. Green, H. Clay Reavis and R. M. Finlayson; the Misses Alice Corum, Martha Reynolds, Olive Vieira and Lorraine Petzel.

The faculty and office force of the Long Beach Continuation high school were entertained at dinner last Sunday by Miss Agnes Wolcott, assisted by her sister, Miss Lucy Wolcott, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schmitt. Mrs. Schmitt, formerly Miss Ina Fletcher, was a member of the school faculty. Mr. Schmitt is a school principal in Los Angeles. A long table placed under the live oak beside the Wolcott cabin at Alta Vista Drive, was decorated with festive horns of plenty in autumn shades. An appropriately decorated bridal cake containing prophetic omens afforded much merriment. Mr. and Mrs. Schmitt were presented with two modernistic casserole dishes from the group which included Mmes. Helen D. Atkins, C. F. Kemper, J. B. Quist and Alva L. Walker, the Misses Ruth Irene Corser, Marjorie Atkins, Marjorie Smith, Mildred Fuller, Theresa Allcock, Pearl Palmer, Theresa Kurtenbaugh, and Messrs. C. F. Kemper, J. B. Quist, Harold Stewart and Alva Walker.

Janet and Bryan Jensen, children of Mr. and Mrs. Holger Jensen, held open house last Friday night at the Jensen studio, the old club house on Woodland Drive, for canyon children and their parents who arrived as spooks, ghosts, witches, cowboys and hoboes. Rafteries were hung with pine boughs, balloons and streamers in colors of the Halloween motif. Masses of chrysanthemums, grinning pumpkins, tall lighted candles and fire in the open grate, lent charm to the scene. Apple bobbing, toasting of marshmallows and dancing made up the evening's entertainment. Cider, doughnuts and candies were served to the guests among whom were Mrs. James Irvine and son Stanton, Mrs. Ella A. Cadmus, Miss Laura E. Cadmus, Mrs. Birdie Manley and grandchildren, Birdie, Edward and J. W.; Wm. A. Thomas, Mrs. Frank Ronge and children, Dorothy, Frank Jr., and Mary Lou, Alice Corum, Lorraine Petzel, Betty Patterson, Jimmie and Kendall Heasley, Graham Patterson, Richard Vanderpool and Elmer Stelle.

Mrs. L. F. Stork of Altadena entertained members of her card club and other guests in the picnic gardens of Mr. and Mrs. S. Petzel, 461 Sturtevant Drive, on Saturday night. Myriads of colored lanterns strung thruout the grounds and suspended from oaks and sycamores gave a magic touch to the scene. Witches and ghostly forms presented a weird spectacle from behind corn stalks, trees and in dark corners. Varied and unique were the costumes worn by the guests who paraded before judges in the grand march, when Mrs. L. S. High as "Sis Hopkins" was awarded a prize for the best comedy costume in the women's class and Miss Clara Bast as "Ikey the Jew" received the prize for the gentlemen's class. Dancing, games, recitations and songs made up the evening's entertainment and supper was served on the terrace from long tables decorated in the Halloween motif. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Burke, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Landregan, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Stotenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Reilly, Mr. and Mrs. O. Lasater, Mmes. W. B. Corum and L. S. High, Miss Laura E. Cadmus, Alice Corum, Leona High and Lorraine Petzel, of Sierra Madre.

Joan Crawford Is Star In Epic Film of Jazz

Joan Crawford made her bow as a full fledged star, and at the same time gave the screen one of the most powerful dramatic roles, not only in her own career, but perhaps in the entire history of modern drama when her new M-G-M vehicle, "Our Modern Maidens," was given to the public. The picture appears at the Monrovia Lyric Nov. 15 and 16. z"4 Devils," as presented in Fox Movietone, captures the favor and imagination of all who have witnessed the picture in the downtown theatres. This spectacular picture with thrills, fun, action, drama and added thrills of circus life, is on the program at the Lyric during the coming week.

Ronald Colman in "Bulldog Drummond" is at the Lyric Tuesday-Wednesday-Thursday of next week. The picture comes backed with an impressive cast and a reputation as one of the greatest melodramas of all time in both book and drama form.

'Creation' to Be Preented Soon by Monrovia Chorus

The Monrovia Community Chorus is deeply engaged in rehearsals on "The Creation" which is to be given to the public in concert soon. Several Sierra Madre singers are members of the organization. There is still a need for voices, tenors especially, and anyone interested in oratorio may join.

In order to acquaint the community with the chorus and the splendid ensemble work of which it is capable, it was decided to give a pre-Christmas concert at the Monrovia high school auditorium, Thursday evening, December 12. A mixed program of Christmas music and concert numbers will be given. There will be no admission charge, but a silver collection will be taken to defray expenses and to help finance the oratorio.

'Man and Superman' Now On at The Playhouse

"Man and Superman," George Bernard Shaw's brilliant satire on love and marriage is playing this and next week at the Community Playhouse. In this amusing play John Tanner (Harrison Ford) plays a Don Juan sort of hero who is madly pursued by Anne (Florence Mason) altho he has no desire to marry her, or to marry any woman. Unfortunately they reckon without the Life Force which brings them continually together. They fight it but to no avail. In the end both of them give up and say to one another that it is all "just talk." They really love one another. From behind the scene comes a ballet, symbolizing the Life Force which laughs silently to see the hero and heroine so duped.

Woman's Club Notes

The folk-song monologue, as originated by Miss Lucy E. Wolcott, interpreting the heart history of the nations in song and story, will be presented by Miss Wolcott at the club house this afternoon at 3 o'clock. All club women are invited to this musical lecture recital, which is sponsored by the Music Section of the club, of which Miss Laura E. Cadmus is chairman.

Miss Wolcott holds the honor of being first president of the Woman's Music Study Club of Long Beach. She was also the first chairman of Community Singing in Southern California, making Long Beach one of the first ten cities in the United States to establish community singing. She has been much interested in folk music and has featured costume recitals through Southern California. The American Indian impersonation especially has succeeded to such degree that Indians themselves have asked to which tribe she belongs. Miss Wolcott is this year music chairman of the Los Angeles District Federation of Women's Clubs and chairman of course of study for the California Federation of Music Clubs.

Anne Meservey of Hollywood, recital artist, organist and teacher of piano, will assist as accompanist and in piano illustrations. She has studied at Armour Institute, Chicago, the University of Michigan and for five years in Paris. She has also coached with Godowsky.

The lecture is given in four groups of folk songs, Celtic, French, Russian and American.

All club women having birthdays in November will please notify Mrs. R. S. Corlett for reservations at the November birthday table. A new feature this year is the inauguration of a box for birthday pennies, to be placed on the table. Contributions to this box are used for charities of the Philanthropy department.

Next Wednesday is the regular club luncheon day. Speakers are Harold Carew, whose subject will be "Jedediah Strong Smith, the first white man to cross the mountains into California before the Forty-niners; and Mrs. W. J. Lawless, who will talk on "Activities of Women's Organizations on Living Costs."

Mr. Carew, a resident of Sierra Madre, is literary editor of the Pasadena Star-News and a well-known writer and critic. Mrs. Lawless, past president of the club, is state chairman of Living Costs for the California League of Women Voters.

In the afternoon Rabbi Ernest Trattner of Los Angeles Temple Emanu-El, will speak on "The Seven Wonders of the World." Dr. Trattner is a Scribner author, his new book, "Unravelling the Book of Books," having just been published by Scribner Co.

The benefit entertainment and card party held at the clubhouse Saturday night, under the auspices of the Committee on Cooperation with War Veterans of which Mrs. Philip Senour is chairman, was attended by more than 150 persons. Some 200 tickets were sold by Mrs. Senour and her committee who worked untiringly to reach the desired goal.

An interesting program, made up of out-of-town entertainers, together with some of this city's most popular talent, was presented by Collette of Pasadena, formerly of the Pavlova Co., assisted by an artist pupil, Miss Bertha Ellis of Monrovia, in whistling and piano numbers; Mrs. Corita Lieben, mezzo-soprano, accompanied by Mrs. R. M. Finlayson; Evelyn Caldwell, reader, and the "Harmony Four," J. and D. Buchanan, James C. Heasley and Clarence Noshier in a group of humorous numbers.

Mrs. John Robertson, president, and Mrs. E. H. Porter represented the Sierra Madre Woman's Club Wednesday at the Michillinda Woman's Club luncheon and reciprocity program.

The Art Section will meet next Tuesday in the Osgood Room at 2 o'clock. Miss Kathleen George, sister of Mrs. F. P. Conard, will talk on "Indian Life and Art of Chili." Miss George has spent many years teaching the Indians in South America. She will exhibit objects of Indian art and will appear in native costume. Mrs. Borradaile is hostess for the afternoon. She will tell of her recent trip to Spain.

The Rummage Sale will be held on Friday of next week. Members are urged to bring or send at least one article for the sale. Mrs. W. E. Poeherl or Mrs. W. R. Humphries will call for articles if notified.

DATES TO BE REMEMBERED November 8, 3 p. m., Music Section meeting. Nov. 9, 8 p. m., Beginners' dancing class.

Nov. 11, 7:30 p. m., Dr. Roman's Forum. Nov. 12, 2 p. m., Art section. Nov. 13, 12:30 p. m., Luncheon. Nov. 15, Rummage Sale.

Dr. Frederick Roman will conduct his forum next Monday night at the Woman's Club, 7:30. Each club member is asked to bring one person as a permanent member for the Forum series, which are held on the second and fourth Mondays of each month. In his next lecture Dr. Roman will continue his general review of experiences in Europe on the political situation during the last six months.

Pianist to Play November 17, at the Auditorium

The Philharmonic Orchestra of Los Angeles, Dr. Artur Rodzinski conductor, in second popular concert of the season, Sunday afternoon, November 17, at the Philharmonic Auditorium. The soloist at this concert will be Margaret Hamilton, pianist who will play the Rachmaninoff-Concerto for Piano No. 2 in C Minor, Op. 18. This artist, known as a musical genius since she was five years old, has appeared as soloist with leading orchestras of this country, and her appearance with the Philharmonic Orchestra is awaited with interest. A number programmed, which will be given first hearing in Los Angeles, is the Kalinnikoff Symphony No. 1 in G Minor. Kalinnikoff wrote two symphonies, and this is the one by which he is best known. The work is extremely Russian in character; the composer has utilized Russian folk songs and dances as the basis for the principal themes. There is no theme common to all four movements yet the first and last begin with the same subject—a characteristic Russian song. This composer was a son of a poor Russian police official, and he died at the age of thirty-five of tuberculosis, brought on by privations due to poverty. The opening number on this program will be Bizet—Dramatic Overture "Patrie," program closing with Ravel—Symphonic Fragments from the Ballet "Daphnis et Chloe."

The spirit of cooperation at all times given by St. Rita's and especially their cooperation in postponing their Friday night dances when the Woman's Club is also having a dance or card party Saturday night of the same week, was reciprocated by the large attendance of members of the Woman's Club Tuesday night.

MISSIONARY MEETING

WELL ATTENDED—

The Missionary meeting held in the Congregational Church Oct. 31, was one of the largest meetings the Missionary Society ever held.

The luncheon at noon in the Social Hall, arrangements of which were in charge of Mrs. R. J. Lord and Mrs. A. F. Snell, was attended by over 335 guests and visitors. Tall lighted candles and chrysanthemums adorned the long tables. The ladies of the church who assisted the chairmen of the committee were praised by the guests with gratitude for their generous hospitality.

Mrs. W. S. Hull is the head of the Missionary Society of the local Congregational Church.

The program opened in the morning with prayer by Rev. A. O. Pritchard, following which Mrs. Harold I. Gardner of Whittier, association secretary, presided throughout the day. The program was all planned by district officers. Over 90 Sierra Madre ladies were present either part or all of the day.

Music was in charge of Mrs. Myrtle Hill. Quartet numbers were furnished by Mrs. Ashmore, Miss May Fuller, sopranos, Mrs. E. E. Bacon and Mrs. J. N. Hawks, altos. Mrs. Ashmore and Mrs. Hawks also appeared in a duet entitled "How Amiable Are Thy Dwellings."

"The Festival of Thanksgiving" a dramatic pantomime, given by the Friendship Club of the church, was considered one of the most beautiful presentations ever given in the church. Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger deserves great credit for her dramatic training of the ladies. Mrs. H. W. Glidden, who assisted with training and costumes, Rudolph Hartman in charge of the lighting effects, did their parts admirably. J. N. Hawks, who painted the castle, and Mr. Evans who assisted with the scenery, all helped in obtaining the desired effects.

Mrs. High, as the Lady, was very realistic in her portrayal of ingratitude for her blessings, with Mrs. Babbitt, her maid, expressively waiting upon her thru-out. A group of maidens on their way to church with their offerings was enacted by Mrs. R. M. Finlayson, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Asbury, Miss Croft and Mrs. Heasley. The lady of riches was well portrayed by Mrs. Adwell, while the blind lady, Mrs. T. M. Schwartz, gave her audience the feeling that she was actually afflicted with blindness. Mrs. Rudolph Hartman gave a great deal of real "boyish" action to her portrayal of "the beggar" with his pittance.

Mrs. Ellen Bandy of Monrovia and Mrs. Humphries, mother of W. R. Humphries, with her two daughters were noted among the guests.

PASADENA JR. COLLEGE

WE BEAT RIVERSIDE

In one great, glorious splurge, the upper division Bulldogs made up for their one defeat and their narrow wins by overturning the Riverside Tigers by a score of 49 to 0. It was just one touchdown after another last Saturday night under the floodlights at the Rose Bowl. Incidentally, that was the last game to be played under the lights this year for an entire new turf is being planted for the New Year's game.

NO MATERIAL

It's a faux pas to speak of the lower division team at the junior college. They have lost every league game played. But it's funny. They've won every practice encounter. Lack of well trained material can be given as the reason for the loss. But in a year or two Pasadena is expected to run out championship teams. Junior high students in the tenth and eleventh grades may now take up football and are taking it up with a bang. When they get to college, they will have their preliminary training.

BOULDER DAM

The Engineering Club of the college just can't keep out of print. They are doing something almost every day. Last Saturday 33 members went for an all-day excursion to Torrance. Wednesday Mr. Kennedy of the Los Angeles Bureau of Power and Light spoke to the club on Boulder Canyon Dam. One of the striking facts given is that the dam will probably be built 18 miles up the canyon at Black Canyon because the walls are narrower, trains can reach it better, not so deep to bedrock, and will impound more water.

"SIMBA"

The Faculty Fellowship is pre-sending the motion picture "Simba" at the college next Wednesday afternoon and evening.

TOO MANY KEYS

"Seven Keys to Baldpate" will be given the evening of November 22 by the Bauble and Bells.

IT'S A GREAT LIFE

Oh, to be an honor society member at the junior college. Special privileges galore. Meetings may be held during class time. Dancing and banquets common. But it's not for us to aspire to ambitious heights such as averaging all A's.

WORK!

Three hundred twenty pages of annual make a gigantic book. The annual class will soon find that out when they come to writing their book. Four-color inserts on pebbled paper will be a feature this year. Graduate pictures are already being taken.

THE END

And we close with the statement that this has been one tasteless week. Life was just one quarterly test after another. The teachers don't seem to understand that we have been too busy this year to study. We have one consolation. The orientation test was as hard as eating whipped cream topped chocolate cream pie.

EVENING IN THE FOOT-HILLS

OF SIERRA MADRE.

May I tell you how wonderful our evenings are here, up in the hills? The sun sets in splendour over the eucalyptus trees in the west; and dusk falls. With it, the heat of the summer day takes its reluctant departure; then there steals in that refreshing night breeze that is felt here in the foothills.

Often we get the scent of the ocean wafted up from the beaches, forty miles away, and there is a certainty of an ozone mingling with our mountain air, which is not of our immediate locality.

Flower scents are diffused with this; orange blossoms in the spring and later in the season, jasmine, of which there are many kinds in this southern climate. Sometimes when the breeze blows down from the mountains, there comes the scent of wild sage and the smell of eucalyptus still faintly perceptible.

If there is a moon—and there are many moonlight nights—one can almost read by its brilliant light. We sit outside for a while and presently it becomes cool and we resort to wraps or enter the house, where not infrequently we light a fire in the fireplace.

Often in the evenings we hear strains of music from the open windows on our street and know that some gay party is in progress. Perchance we hear the soft strumming of a guitar or mandolin and perhaps the faint tinkle of the bells on the patient burro as he winds his lazy way to the foot of the trail.

Mountain climbers in hiking dress at times gaily singing or playing some instrument; when we can no longer hear their voices perhaps a lonely dog bays at the moon and the crickets and locusts start their nightly concert; and the mocking-bird—oh, the mocking bird sings all the night long.—Original, by Mary Ward.

"Overtones" Is Acclaimed In New York

Donald Thayer States Critics Were Much Impressed With Number

Donald Thayer, who recently made a brilliant debut in New York musical circles, writes to the News, stating that "Overtones" by Oscar Rasbach scored a distinct impression on the large audience of nearly twelve hundred people. He says in his letter, "I am very happy to tell you that Oscar Rasbach's 'Overtones' had to be repeated the second time, and the applause was just as sustained after the second rendition as it was after the first. In fact all three of his songs, 'A Wanderer's Song' and 'Gifts' which he dedicated to me, were very enthusiastically received and applauded."

According to reports from New York, the large audience which greeted Mr. Thayer in his initial concert in the metropolis established a record in size and appreciation for such an occasion and seems to definitely establish the singer's status as one of the foremost artists of the day.

Criticisms appearing in leading New York papers are most complimentary, and a reproduction of some of them, in part, will be enjoyed by Sierra Madre friends of Mr. Thayer.

The New York Sun of October 28, said: "Mr. Thayer's voice is one of ample power, good quality and range; it is well graded in dynamics and well placed. Good breath control and his attack secure. Mr. Thayer had an appreciative audience and made a very favorable impression. Donald Thayer is one of the best new singers heard here this season and he will doubtless be heard here again."

The New York Times: "Mr. Thayer has a voice of good quality; he showed good schooling and an appreciation of style. He knows how to treat a melodic line. He knows the principles of good singing and applied them sedulously to tone and text. Refinement of style and interpretation of which he is keenly aware. His general intelligence and musicianship should be of value to him and his audiences."

The New York Evening World: "Distinct talent for recital was made evident at Town Hall yesterday afternoon by Donald Thayer, baritone. He disclosed a voice adequate for platform purposes, pleasing of quality, steady of production and possessed of style. He should become a valued exponent of song."

The New York Herald Times: "Donald Thayer gave a song recital in Town Hall yesterday afternoon. The baritone voice of this singer is of velvety texture, and very effective when employed mezzo-voice. His delivery of Handel's 'Where 'E'er You Walk' displayed warmth of feeling and good style. We are grateful to Mr. Thayer for including the seldom sung Erich Wolff songs on his program."

Notable Musicians Gather at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Bowen

A representative gathering of Pasadena and Sierra Madre musicians met informally at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bowen Wednesday evening. They were treated to a program of rare excellence by Miss Beatrice Bowman, coloratura soprano, and Louis Courcil, bass.

Madame Bowman has a voice of rare beauty and is a true artist in every sense. Walter Damrosch was a friend, as was also Philip Sousa and she had several New York engagements with each of these great conductors. She sang star roles in many operas which she enhanced with a personality of great charm.

Mr. Courcil is the possessor of a truly remarkable voice of great resonance and power, which he handles at all times with masterful conclusion. He also has appeared in leading roles in most of the great musical centers of the world.

Mrs. Randolph Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Gaze and Mr. Rasbach graciously responded to many insistent demands. Mrs. Wood sang a charming group of Mr. Rasbach's songs, accompanied by the composer, and Mr. Gaze delighted his many admirers with a song cycle which he invested with his inimitable style. Mr. Norval McGregor, who will be remembered as the Junipero Serra of the Mission Play, gave a reading which added to the enjoyment of the evening. Contributed.

Ladies and gentlemen! The big fight Tuesday night was won by—well, what difference does it make?

"The Virginian" may be quite a "talkie," but personally if we can't see it with Bill Hart in the leading role we don't care to see it at all.

Dropped into one of those deluxe hash houses down town the other day and ordered a tongue sandwich. The first time I ever ate a gnat's tongue.

And it wasn't such a big gnat, either.

Experts say Sierra Madre's school building is only 33 per cent efficient. Experts in other lines say the local jail is one of the best and most sanitary in the state.

Such a life! A fine jail and nobody in it; and a poor school building for the finest kiddies in the land.

However, Santa Claus will see to it that the kiddies get an even break with the bootleggers. The election comes just in time to give the children a wonderful Christmas present.

TO SIERRA MADRE

O the beauty of your mountains! On a crisp November morn, Fills my heart with deep thanksgiving.

And with joy that I was born, To behold this autumn's living Glories from God's golden horn.

O the splendor of the mountains Smiling down upon our town! Bathed in sunshine and bedecked In Autumn's latest bridal gown, Which somehow has just got tucked in

'Mongst the wrinkles of His crown.

O the glory of the mountains! Every morning when I rise, I lift up my eyes to greet them, And straightway my spirits rise; And at night I run to meet them In my dreams of Paradise.

matter of a better school plant one of their major objectives. He said that Kiwanis has always been a vigorous champion of education, especially for the underprivileged child.

Mr. Meredith explained how the survey committee arrived at the estimate that Sierra Madre's school population would be practically doubled by 1940 and urged that it was only a matter of good business to plan for a span of years ahead, rather than just for the immediate future.

He also stressed the fact that Sierra Madre's school plant scored only 348 points out of a possible 1000, which makes it slightly less than one-third efficient. It is generally conceded among educators that a school plant that rates as low as 500 should be "scrapped" just as an automobile or other piece of machinery that has served its time of usefulness to a point where upkeep would be prohibitive.

In comparison with eleven other cities that compare favorably with Sierra Madre in size and other factors, this city ranks eighth in current expenditures for education, tenth in capital outlay for buildings, etc., tenth in the value of school property in proportion to the average school attendance, and ninth in the per cent of tax money that is spent for schools.

Contrast this rating, Mr. Meredith asked, with the fact that Sierra Madre ranks fourth among the twelve cities compared in the assessed valuation of property that furnishes the true wealth back of the pupil. In other words, this city ranks from eighth to tenth in performance of duty to the child, but fourth in the ability to provide education for him. Mr. Meredith expressed his willingness to assist this city at any time and in any way with the problem of obtaining better educational facilities which he declared was a matter that needed immediate solution.

They Did the Job!

Uncle Sam spoke — and they answered! Almost over-night a million men sprang to arms.

Some fought it out in the kitchens peeling potatoes — some "did their bit" in recruiting camps far from the fields of glory — some gladly gave that "last full measure of love and devotion" out in No Man's Land. Not one was unimportant — each had a real part in "doing the job."

And so today — on the 11th anniversary of that glad November 11 when bells proclaimed peace — we honor the men who served their country in the World War.
